REGISTRATION BOOKS CLOSED

Many Names Were Added on Yesterday.

Ratio of New Registrations in City Over Two To One in Favor of the Democrats—County Chairman Sherrill Says Majority in County Will Average At Least Seventeen Hundred—Other Leaders Confident.

The registration books closed yesterday at sundown and only those whose names are recorded in their respective precincts will be permitted to participate in the general election on Tuesday, Nov. 8. The registration yesterday was quite heavy, a large number of people waiting until the last day as is usually the case. In the city the Stedman Club members were quite active and through their efforts a large number were prevailed upon to register and thus qualify themselves to vote Tuesday week.

From reports received from all parts of the county it appears that nearly three times as many Democrats as Republicans registered, this being due in a large measure to the efforts of the Democratic organization in calling on the voters in all parts of the county and seeing that they registered.

Chairman Sherrill was seen yesterday afternoon and he was in fine spirits over the outlook. He estimated that the Democratic majority this year in the county would be at least 1,700. The Republican vote is not going to be as heavy as usual, he says, and the Democrats are going to make considerable gains. A number of Republicans have stated that they did not intend to vote this year because of the evident dominating power of Marion Butler behind the State chairman.

Other Democrats in the city who have been keeping close tab on the political conditions in the county are equally as sanguine as Chairman Sherrill. It is thought that Maj. Stedman, nominee for Congress, will lead the county ticket with the State Senator a close second.

For the past few days all efforts have been to have all Democrats registered. Now that the registration books are closed the importance of going to the polls will be pressed upon the voters by the Democratic speakers. A large number of speeches will be made in the county during this week and the campaign will be closed Monday night, Nov 7, with a speech in the opera house by Maj. Stedman. It is possible that Hon. Cy. Watson, of Winston, will make a short talk on this occasion also.

Ex-Gov. R. B. Glenn will speak in the court house on Tuesday night at 7:30 and Gov. Kitchin will speak on Nov. 4 at 7:30. Senator Overman will speak at Proximity on the evening of Nov. 3. Gen. B. S. Royster will speak at Stokesdale on Nov. 5. An effort is being made to have ex-Gov. Aycock speak in the county.

Local Democratic speakers were busy last night. Mr. E. D. Broadhurst spoke at Tabernacle. Col. Hobgood spoke at Stokesdale. Capt. J. W. Forbis spoke at Pomona and Messrs. T. J. Gold and Glenn Hudson spoke at Gibsonville. At each place there was a good sized crowd and the speakers were warmly received. Chairman Sherrill is arranging for a number of speeches by local Democrats this week.

Prof. Spence At West Market This Morning.

Prof. H. E. Spence, of Trinity College, will fill the pulpit at West Market Street church this morning. The pastor, Rev. E. K. McLarty, is at present at New Bern conducting a revival, in which there have been a great many conversions and the meeting was such that it was impossible for him to get away. Prof. Spence has kindly consented to fill his pulpit and the congregation is to be congratulated upon having the opportunity of hearing him. Prof. Spence is professor of English in Trinity College, succeeding Dr. Mims in the Chair of English literature. He is a brilliant speaker and a fine preacher and it is hoped that the congregation will turn out in full force to hear him.

The reception committee of the Stedman Democratic Club are requested to meet Governor Glenn at the Hotel Huffine on Tuesday at seven thirty o'clock and escort him to the court house.

THE CITY SHOULD BURN ITS RUBBISH

The Manner In Which Waste Is Scattered Over Fields In Outskirts of City a Disgrace Says Civic Department of Woman's Club—Apply a Match and Solve Problem.

Dr. Battle in his talk before the civic department of the Woman's Club, recently, emphasized the importance of burning leaves and broken twigs—old papers and rubbish of every kind in which germs might find lodgment and where they might deposit eggs that would hatch in the spring under the quickening rays of the warm sunshine. And the ladies, when they urged the citizens to clean up, promising that the city wagons would remove all trash collected, did not know and did not intend that the objectionable, germ-laden, nondescript conglomerate mass should be taken merely beyond the confines of the city only to offend the eyes and nostrils of our country friends and people who travel the public highway.

The question has been asked before in this column and we want to ask again: Where is Greensboro's dumping ground?

People driving over the county roads bring damaging reports of conditions just outside the corporate limits, where, it is said, the contents of the trash wagons have been emptied indiscriminately along the road side and in fields which are so disfigured thereby as to be positively unsightly. Now the civic department understands that Greensboro has no money and cannot afford an incinerating plant, but it can afford a box of matches, and there is no reason under the sun why the rubbish collected in the city cannot all be taken to some large open field, set apart for that purpose and far enough removed from buildings and fences to avoid any risk, and reduced to ashes, instead of being left to the mercy of the winds to be blown about all winter and become more and more a menace to health and a greater blot upon the landscape. The department suggests matches as a solution of the dumping ground problem for the present, at least. When Greensboro grows to be a big city, in the gradual evolution of matters municipal, the incinerating plant will come as a necessity. In the meantime let the rubbish be burned in an open field, to which, under proper precautions and intelligent direction there can be no possible objection.

The question of clean grocery stores and sanitary meat markets is one which is being agitated by members of the Woman's Club and especially by those of the civic department. The time has come when good housekeepers demand pure food and will not countenance the slovenly methods indulged in by the old style country merchant, who sold "dry goods and groceries" and never disturbed the cobwebs on his shelves or the boxes under his counter. In these enlightened, scientific days of practical knowledge and practical living, the dealer who keeps a clean place is the one who gets the best patronage from the best class of customers.

Owing to the fact that bad weather and conflicting entertainments have caused the postponement of the lawn party arranged for the Junior Civic League several weeks ago, it is now decided to abandon it for the present, substituting something a little later on more suitable for the season. The juniors are urged to keep up their good work and wait for the committees. They can all keep busy the next two months clearing away the leaves and planting bulbs for cultivation in the early spring. Everybody agreed that Greensboro looked better the past summer than ever before. Let next summer mark still another step forward.

WASHINGTON TO SPEAK TONIGHT

Noted Negro Educator Will Make Address.

Speaks in Auditorium Tonight At Eight Thirty O'clock—Party Will Arrive in Greensboro At Six O'clock—Will Visit Several Colored Institutions of the City Tomorrow Afternoon—Will Be Given Hearty Welcome.

Booker T. Washington, the noted negro educator, will speak in the auditorium tonight at 8:30 o'clock and it is expected that he will be heard by an immense audience. Washington is known and honored for his work among his people not only throughout the entire country, but in other countries as well. He is without a doubt the greatest man in the colored race and has done more for the uplift of the negro race throughout the country than any other man. He is an able speaker and is well informed as to existing conditions in this and other countries and it will be a treat to hear him. Special music will be rendered by the best negro talent in the city.

The hour for the speaking was first fixed at 8 o'clock, but at the request of some of the pastors of the white churches of the city the committee in charge, desiring to have the pastors and their congregations present if possible, consented to change the hour until 8:30. This will give the pastors an opportunity to hold brief services at their churches and then go to the auditorium.

Arrangements have been perfected for the accommodation of all who desire to be present at the speaking and have not secured tickets. This matter will be in the hands of the Auditorium committee who will be at their posts of duty at Auditorium from 4:30 to 7:30 p. m.

Washington and his party, among whom is President J. B. Dudley, of the A. & M. College, will arrive this afternoon at 6 o'clock from Winston. The reception committee, composed of representative colored people of the city, will meet the party at the train and the entertainment committee from the Business Men's League will take charge of the party until time for the address in the auditorium.

Monday morning Washington will go to Reidsville, but will return here at noon. He will be given luncheon, after which the party will tour the city, being in the care of the entertainment committee. During the afternoon 15 minutes will be spent at the A. & M. College, 15 minutes at the Lutheran College, 15 minutes at Bennett College and 10 minutes at the Suggs building. Afterwards the party will visit the other colleges if time will permit. At 3:20 Washington and party will leave on the train for the East, stopping over at Durham.

While in Greensboro Washington and party will receive every attention at the hands of the entertainment committee, which has spared nothing to make the visit of the noted negro as pleasant and enjoyable as possible.

FIFTY-FOUR AND SIX THE SCORE

High School Boys Defeat Reidsville Team.

Hard Fought Football Game on Local Gridiron Yesterday Afternoon—Visitors Did Fine Individual Work, But Team Work Was Lacking—Coffin Kicks Nine Goals Out of As Many Chances—The Officials.

Cone Park was the scene of a hard and onesided struggle yesterday afternoon when the football team representing the Greensboro High School defeated the eleven of the Reidsville High School by the score of 54 to 6. The game, however, was a farce by no means, as it was hard-fought from beginning to end.

The losers played a good game individually, but the interference of the local backs was too strong for any defense except that of united teamwork. The team showed plainly its need of a coach, for they have much good, though raw material that could be developed into a fast eleven. Long end runs proved to be the best ground gainers for the locals, as their splendid interference repeatedly carried the runner for long gains. The visitors used the forward pass frequently, rarely executing it successfully but in a scramble luck usually favored them and the ball was recaptured on the majority of the attempts.

Greensboro scored the first touchdown in four minutes of play as the local backs, circling the ends for long runs, carried the ball within striking distance of the goal and enabled Marrs to carry it across by a line plunge. Coffin kicked the goal. The next touchdown was made in three minutes. A long, beautifully executed forward pass, Coffin to Harry, netted a gain of forty yards and carried the ball to Reidsville's three yard line. Yates carried the ball over and Coffin kicked goal. The third touchdown of the quarter was scored by Murray's run to Reidsville's ten yard line and Grimsley's plunge for a score. Goal was kicked. In the entire quarter the Reidsville boys only held the ball for a few minutes, Greensboro clearly demonstrating her superiority by almost wiping the visitors off their feet. Score 18-0.

After a three minute rest between the quarters, the Reidsville team came back strong and exhibited greater strength than any shown against Greensboro here this season. They took the ball on downs on Greensboro's thirty-five yard line and immediately worked a forward pass which carried them to the eight yard line. The next play sent Hubbard through the line for a touchdown. Hubbard also kicked goal. Greensboro was somewhat stirred up by this score and, following his own advice to "carry her on through, boys," Capt. Coffin received the kick-off and, aided by splendid interference, ran the length of the field for a touchdown. He succeeded in kicking goal. The score at the end of the quarter sstood Greensboro 24, Reidsville 6.

In the first part of the third quarter Grimsley captured a Reidsville forward pass and ran forty yards for the fifth. The visiting boys thought the play was dead and made no effort to block Grimsley but, as they were proved to be in the wrong the score counted. Next, Marrs, after the ball had been taken from Reidsville on downs, delivered splendid interference, ran forty yards and carried the ball to the five yard line. The next play sent Coffin over for the sixth touchdown, and later, the sixth goal. Soon following came Harry's capture of Reidsville's forward pass on Reidsville's fifteen yard line. A couple of plays sent put Yates across and Coffin kicked goal. Score, Greensboro 42, Reidsville 6.

Reidsville's first play in the fourth quarter was a forward pass which Coffin captured and the result was the eighth touchdown and goal. The last touchdown was made by Grimsley, after Greensboro had recovered a kick and Dixon had fallen on a forward pass. Coffin completed an excellent record of nine goals out of nine chances and the score stood Greensboro 54, Reidsville 6.

Although the score against them was large Reidsville showed unexpected strength by scoring on the locals, a performance which is very rare in these seasons of championship teams turned out by the Greensboro High School. The Greensboro boys were twice called back from touchdowns on account of illegal plays, which, if counted, would have run the score larger. The best playing of the game was done by Coffin, Murray and Grimsley of Greensboro, and Hubbard and Thompson for Reidsville.

The officials of the game were: Coffin, referee; Groome, umpire; Mr. Muir, head-linesman; and Harry and Walker, timekeepers. The quarters were ten minutes each. The opposing line-ups were:

Greensboro.	Position.	Reidsville.
Foust	C.	Pool

Rehearsals Monday at the Grand:
3 p. m.—Buttercups.
3:30 p. m.—Sweetpeas.
5:30 p. m.—Revel of Hearts.
6 p. m.—Pantomime of Rosary.

When Fete in Flowerland was given in Richmond, the Times-Dispatch said:

Society sat in the boxes at the "Fete in Flowerland" given at the Academy last night and was delightfully entertained, the curtain rising on tableau after tableau of unusual beauty in grouping and artistic arrangement. The little fairies waved the flowers on the scene with their beckoning wands. One of the prettiest acts of the evening was a fancy dance in which they were veritable fairies indeed by their lightness and grace.

All the little people were excellent in their choruses and motion songs as Snowdrops, Rosebuds, Forget-me-nots, Buttercups, Daisies, Lilies, Sweetpeas, etc. "Consider the Lilles" was especially fine and the solo parts worthy of special and most complimentary mention.

"The season's debutantes were seen in a pantomime, composed by Miss Moorman, illustrative of Nevin's "Rosary." This was a star act, the buds gowned in Greek Costumes, their hair banded with fillets, their grouping and swaying motions presenting an enchanting picture. They also appeared in "Revel of Hearts," which was roundly applauded. Debutantes of last year in a "Revel of Smilax" held the attention of the audience in a delightful way. Then the two groups returned to the stage and mingled in several figures, each gained by association and color contrast.

The specialties were excellent and the comedy which closed the performance kept the audience laughing from start to finish. Each actor was so suited to his respective role that all were stars.

HOOK & LADDER WAGON.

Temporary Outfit Designed and Made In Greensboro—Was on Trial Yesterday.

The Hook & Ladder wagon is undergoing repairs and Assistant Superintendent Cox and Mr. E. E. Bain, of the Fire Commission, designed and manufactured an improved temporary outfit to be used until the regular wagon is ready for use. With the exception of the wheels and running gear the apparatus is the real "Greensboro Make" and in case of a fire the wagon would no doubt make a hit, to use the parlance of the shows.

With the exception of the raising ladder, or derrick, the new wagon carries all the ladders the regular wagon carried. The driver has a high seat and a foot rest. There is no gong, but one will likely be added later. The wagon was tested out yesterday. The driver sent his horses along the street at a lively gait, but it was found that a sharp turn could not be made as could be done with the regular wagon.

Mayor Stafford viewed the Greensboro invention and at once arrived at the conclusion that the outfit would make a capital police patrol, with the addition of two benches for the prisoners. He talked like the city might purchase the wagon and turn it over to the police as soon as the regular fire wagon is repaired. At any rate he said that the outfit would be a great improvement over the present patrol, which has often upset the officers when they were going after an offender.

Let Off With Costs.

In Municipal Court yesterday the principal case was that against Hazel Headen, the negro lad charged with assaulting Percolie Wellob with a brick. Judgment was suspended on payment of the costs, including the physician's bill. Myrtle King was taxed with the costs for failing to appear in court as a witness.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. BRIDE AND GROOM CRATED IN BOX CAR

Couple Captured After Wedding and Tied With Ropes.

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 28.—Crated like live stock and shipped in a baggage car was the experience of H. A. Kellar, of Columbiana, and Miss Hazel E. Holderman, society belle and daughter of Editor Holderman, of Leipsic, who were married in that city last night.

The couple had arranged a honeymoon to be spent in the East and were to come to Lima for the midnight Manhattan express. While they were on their way to the station friends of the bride seized the newly wedded couple, bound them securely with ropes and then forcibly conveyed them to a spot where a huge wooden crate had been prepared.

It was similar to that used in shipping live stock, with the exception that chairs had been secured in each end of the same. The bride and the groom were firmly bound in the chairs about three feet apart. At the Ohio Electric Railway station the friends insisted that the crated couple be weighed and shipped as live stock, being marked as "Not perishable."

They demanded that the crate be billed in accordance with the usual rules and regulations of the express company, but the express agent refused to be a party to the affair, and it finally ended by the party buying two full fare tickets to Lima. Arriving at midnight, the couple were released and at once left for the East.

EATS HASTY LUNCHEON, THEN HE DROPS DEAD.

Lynde Belknap of Otis Elevator Company, Victim of Heart Disease and Acute Indigestion.

New York World.

Lynde Belknap, fifty years old, treasurer of the Otis Elevator Company, droped dead yesterday afternoon in his office in the Whitehall Building, No. 17 Battery place. His death was due to heart disease, aggravated by acute indigestion.

Belknap, a hard worker, delayed his luncheon hour until after 2 o'clock. After eating he complained of indigestion, but returned to his office to keep a business appointment. When talking with two men he gasped, sagged forward in his chair and fell on the floor. Dr. Henry B. Siglar, of No. 24 State street, arrived quickly. He found Belknap dead.

Coroners Hellerstein and Winterbottom and Dr. Lehane, Coroner's physician, soon were on hand. Dr. Lehane decided death had been due to heart disease. It was then 3 o'clock, but the body was not removed from the office until 7 o'clock. That was because a big crowd was in front of the building waiting to see the airship in the Statue of Liberty flight. The crowd had not heard that the race had been postponed.

RESTAURANTS.

They Really Had Their Origin In the First French Revolution.

The restaurant of the present time had its origin in the first French revolution, toward the close of the eighteenth century. And the reputation of the French for good cookery and the delicacy of taste in eating as well as in producing toothsome dishes and morsels dates practically from the same time.

That revolution meant ruin to many noble families, and their downfall meant ruin also for their chefs, so some of the latter hit upon the idea of opening houses where dainties prepared by their skilled hands could be obtained. If the experiment succeeded the chefs would be as well off as when in service. The idea was pleasing to the public, the restaurants did a large business, and the proprietors had no reason to regret the revolution from a monetary point of view.

Then it occurred to others that the people might appreciate being educated up to this fine cookery, and many books on the culinary art were published and sold well. One of the most noted of these was "The Gourman Almanack," which appeared in 1798.

Restaurant really means "restoring" and was applied to these places because you went there to have something to revive or restore your failing strength.

MAKING NEEDLES.

Various Processes Through Which the Steel Wire Must Pass.

Needles are made from steel wire, which is first cut by shears from coils into the length of the needles to be made. After a bath of such bits as have been cut out they are placed in a furnace, then rolled until perfectly straight. Next the needle pointer takes up a dozen or so of the wires and rolls them between his thumb and finger, with their ends on a turning grindstone, first one and then the other being ground. The little steel bobbins are next fed into a machine which flattens and gutters the heads, after which the eyes are punched.

They are now complete needles, but rough and easily bent. Careful heating and sudden cooling gives them the necessary temper, and nothing remains but to give them their final polish. On a coarse cloth needles are spread to the number of 40,000 or 50,000. Emery dust is strewed over them, oil is sprinkled on and soft soap daubed over the cloth, which, rolled tightly, is thrown into a pot with others, where it rolls about for twelve hours or more.

When taken from this friction bath the needles require only rinsing in clean hot water, when they are ready to be sorted and packed. — Chicago Tribune.

Fulton and the Clermont.

The first trip of Robert Fulton up the Hudson river in the Clermont was thus described in the American Citizen of Aug. 17, 1810:

"Mr. Fulton's ingenious Steam Boat, invented with a View to the Navigation of The Mississippi from New Orleans upwards, Sails today from the North River, near the State Prison, to Albany. The Velosity of The Steam Boat is Calculated at four miles an hour. It is said that it will make a progress of two against The Current of The Mississippi, and if so it will certainly be a very valuable acquisition to the Commerce of the Western States."

According to Edward Hagaman Hall's history, the Clermont made the trip to Albany in thirty-two hours. The state prison referred to stood on the block in New York now bounded by Washington, West Tenth, West and Charles Streets, in old Greenwich village.

Vessels That Failed.

There was a time when it was believed possible to prevent seasickness by means of specially constructed vessels, says the London Chronicle. The Calais-Douvres, a twin ship, was used on the channel service for many years. Great things were expected from this, but she proved a slow boat, and her passengers were by no mans immune from seasickness. Another attempt in this direction was the Castalia, in which the saloon was suspended like a hammock with a view to minimizing the pitching and rolling. This turned out an utter failure. If the rolling was less than in ordinary vessels the pitching was quite as bad and, moreover, the swinging mechanism occasionally stuck. After a very few trips across the channel the Castalia was taken off the service.

Easy Figuring.

Ascum—I suppose you haven't had time to figure out yet how much your cashier took?

Bank President—Oh, yes. We knew in a very short time.

Ascum—Why, I thought he took a great deal.

Bank President—Exactly. We merely had to count what he left.

Why He Resigned.

"So you resigned!"

"Yes. I couldn't stand the way the firm treated me."

"What did they do?"

"Took my name off the pay roll."—Exchange.

Beginning.

Be always beginning. Never think that you can relax or that you have attained the end. If we think ourselves more than beginners it is a sign that we have hardly yet begun.

Mr. Butler's Caucasian came out late this week, but it didn't explain that New York Evening Post advertisement.

It is strange how men, otherwise good and honest and respectable, will frequently sacrifice, without scruples or seeming remorse, their most settled principles and convictions, under the dictate and to promote the views and plans of selfishly, and oftentimes unscrupulously, ambitious men—Webster's Weekly.

This is because so few men have the courage to say "no." They don't want to do what the wily politician asks them to do, but they are too weak to refuse what he asks. There is a call on every man, no matter what his sphere of activity, to think for himself, to hew to the line, let the chips fall where they may.

It seems to us that those Memphis prohibitionists who are asking the Federal government to step in and make the State and local officials enforce prohibition are making a grave mistake. Southern folks were advocates of State's rights before they were prohibitionists and they don't favor the "new nationalism" which would abrogate a large proportion of the powers of the States. Of course, it is up hill business to enforce prohibition in a community hostile to it, but the prohibitonists should keep on the job, do the best they can with what they have got to do with and wait patiently for the better state of affairs which keeping everlastingly at it will surely bring.

The "silent vote," says an exchange, is getting ready for Nov. 8. Yes and the "silent vote" is what is apt to cause the most carefully worked out prophecies to go wide of the mark. It is always impossible to tell what the voters are going to do. Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany boss, was asked the other day to make a forecast of the New York result. "Tell you more about that after the election," was his laconic reply. Murphy is straining every nerve to elect the Democratic ticket and one might think that it would be good policy to claim everything in sight. But Murphy, whatever his faults, is a man of deeds not words and he doubtless understands that the public don't set any store by the predictions of campaign managers. The "silent vote" always makes it difficult to forecast an election result.

Col. Roosevelt is losing out at a great rate. A correspondent in the New York World writes that "the great wealth of popularity once possessed by Roosevelt is being mortgaged every time he makes a speech and a foreclosure will take place next election day." The Colonel, ever since he got out of the wilds of Africa, has seemed bent on the destruction of his popularity. Wherever he spoke in the old world, it was to assume to tell everybody just what they ought to do and how and when they ought to do it. And when he got back to this country, he set out to shape it right up to his notions with the least possible delay. Had he retired from political life at the end of his term as President, his popularity would have suffered considerably less, though even then the passage of time would have taken from instead of added to his glory. For he was always an overrated man.

The Asheville Citizen refused to enthuse over Vice President Sherman's speech. In fact, the Citizen holds that the Vice President exhibited unlooked for "nerve." It says:

While we did not expect to hear anything but the stock doctrines of the Republican speakers, when our distinguished guest, Vice President Sherman delivered his address at the opera house last night, we had not looked for the unusual "nerve" with which he said in substance that the high protective tariff was a thing of beauty and a joy forever. Mr. Sherman, looking the true type of the trust magnate, sleek and prosperous, regaled a wondering audience with the statement that the successive Republican tariff laws had been great blessings to the American people, and he drew a marvelous picture of the workingman's table groaning under an abundance of good things. To preserve that blissful state, he intimated, it is necessary to elect a Republican congress.

We recall in this connection one very misleading expression that the Vice President used while here. He said that working men are "well and fully employed." This in the face of the fact that the cotton mills all through the South were running on part time or not at all. The working people are not "fully" employed and where they are not "fully" employed they are of course not "well" employed. The Vice President's "set speech" doesn't fit all combinations of circumstances by any means. We believe his tour of North Carolina will do the Democratic party good.

MOTHER SHIPTON'S PROPHECY.

Mr. Editor:

The following may perhaps interest some of your readers. "Mother Shipton's" prophecy was first published in England in 1485. All the events have come to pass except that contained in the last two lines:

Carriages without horses shall go,
And accidents fill the earth with woe;
Around the world thoughts shall fly
In the twinkling of an eye;
Waters shall yet more wonders do.
Now strange, yet shall be true;
The world upside down shall be,
And gold be found at root of tree;
Through hills man shall ride,
And no horse or ass be found at his side;
Under water men shall walk,
Shall ride, shall sleep, shall talk;
In the air men shall be seen
In white, in black, in green;
Iron in the water shall float
As easy as a wooden boat;
Gold shall be found 'mid stone
In a land that's now unknown;
Fire and water shall wonders do;
England shall at last admit a Jew;
And this world to an end shall come
In eighteen hundred and eighty-one.

Women Drink At Aviation Meet.

New York Press.

Smoking among women in public is an ordinary thing these days. Drinking in public places is so frequent that no one thinks to mention it, but to see a woman standing against a bar is decidedly unusual. Yet such incidents may be seen frequently in Belmont Park these days. Women whose refinement is indicated by their manner and freshness of face have been seen standing at the public bar in the park drinking intoxicants. Some reason for this may be found in the fact that tickets to the clubhouse cost $50. The air in the park has been crisp and standing in the open tends to chill one. Many women have rejoiced in the opportunity to get a nip of brandy or whiskey to take away the chill.

SOCIETIES OF THE HIGH SCHOOL

Boys and Girls of Senior and Intermediate Classes Organize Two Debating and Two Literary Societies—Officers Are Elected—Boys Will Debate Every Friday Afternoon.

Thursday afternoon the two literary and two debating societies of the Senior and Intermediate classes of Greensboro High School were organized. The boys of the two classes form the Philomelian and Diaphesian Debating Societies, while the girls of the old McNeil Literary Society have been divided into two rival literary societies. The following are the officers of the four societies: Philomelian: President, Forney; vice president, Eutsler; secretary, Lewis; treasurer, Taylor; first censor, Stone; second censor, Bond. Diaphesian: President, Coffin; vice president, Kerr; secretary, McDuffie; treasurer, Klingman; first censor, Holland; second censor, Blair. Of one of the girls' societies, which have not yet been named, Miss Grimsley is president; Miss Wilson, vice president; Miss Shaffer, secretary; Miss Vanstory, treasurer; Miss Malloy, critic. Of the other Miss Eleanore Moore is president; Miss Hendrix, vice president; Miss Stewart, corresponding secretary; Miss Mary Moore, critic.

The societies will meet every Friday afternoon throughout the year, the girls' societies for a literary program and the boys' for debates. The boys will thus receive good training in debating and, if, as the faculty and student body hopes, another triangular debate is arranged, it is believed by all that Greensboro will uphold her last year's record of two victories on the same night.

Snow Yesterday.

The weather came in for more attention yesterday than it has enjoyed in a long time. The prevailing comment was that it was unseasonably cold. "More like January or February than October" was the general opinion. And this opinion was confirmed when, at about two o'clock, there was quite a noticeable "skift" of snow.

NORMAN RELEASED.

His Father Explains That He Had Funds Removed From Bank on Purpose.

The following is from yesterday's Richmond Virgininian: R. G. Norman, of Greensboro, N. C., the young white man who was arrested several days ago on a charge of passing a worthless check on Gilbert's hotel, was released from custody Friday, the case against him having been quashed when the true conditions of the transaction were made known.

The check was for $34.50 and was given in payment of a bill at the Gilbert hotel. Norman was arrested in Lynchburg and brought back here for trial. He had a hearing before Justice Griggs in police court last Saturday and was held in $300 bail until the case could be investigated. He claimed that he gave the check in good faith, that he had the money in bank when he left but that his partner in business, Robert C. Young, must have drawn the money out during his absence.

Friday morning his father, Mr. J. W. Norman, of Greensboro, appeared in police court and made oath that the charge against his son was the outcome of an act by the father himself. He stated that his son was correct in the statement that he had an account in the bank at the time he left home.

"I knew that my son was off on a pleasure trip," said Mr. Norman, "and that he was drinking. I thought I would prevent his drawing checks for all the money in bank to the credit of the firm and I prevailed upon his partner, Mr. R. C. Young, to withdraw the entire account and deposit it in another bank.

"In this way my son thought he had money in the bank on which he drew the check, but he did not. I did not foresee his arrest on any such charge as that which now faces him."

This explanation was satisfactory to the justice and since the hotel people stated that they were entirely satisfied, Justice Griggs dismissed the case. The money was refunded to Gilbert's hotel.

Wedding Invitations.

Invitations reading as follows have been received in the city and will be of interest to the many friends of the bride, who has often visited her cousin, Mrs. G. W. Whitsett:

"Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Woods request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Brent, to Mr. Homer Eugene Pace, on the evening of Wednesday, the ninth of November, nineteen hundred and ten, at eight o'clock, 402 West Washington street, Sherman, Texas."

"At home after December the first, Corsicana, Texas."

Mrs. Sherwood's Sister Dead.

Mrs. T. D. Sherwood yesterday received a message bearing the news of the death of her sister, Mrs. T. J. H. McLeod, which occurred yesterday morning at her home in Hillsboro, Texas. Mrs. McLeod was formerly Miss Myrtle McMasters, of this city, and she had many friends and acquaintances here who will regret to learn of her death. Besides Mrs. Sherwood Mrs. McLeod leaves a brother, Mr. Clayton McMasters, of this city; also two uncles, Messrs. J. W. Scott and W. C. McLean.

PLAN TO HOLD A BOYS' EXHIBITION

It Will Consist Entirely of Articles Manufactured and Collections Made by Boys Between the Ages of Ten and Seventeen.

On Friday, November 25 and Saturday, November 26th, a novel exhibition will be given in the lecture room of the city library to which all interested citizens are most cordially invited. This exhibition will consist entirely of articles manufactured and collections made by boys between the ages of 10 and 17 years who are residents of Greensboro and Guilford county.

From items already gathered from discussions of the plan the result will be both varied and exceedingly interesting.

Mr. E. P. Wharton, president of the library board, will act as chairman of the committee in charge of the enterprise and will be ably assisted by three other good friends of Greensboro boys: Professor Hammel, who will have charge of all articles made by boys including anything of their own handiwork; Mr. A. T. Vernon, who will advise the boys in regard to all exhibits of minerals; and Mr. J. T. Armfield, who will be in charge of all collections in natural history—butterflies, bird eggs, bird nests, etc.—which may be offered for exhibition. Mr. Armfield will also look after the collection of Indian relics, collections of stamps and coins and any other collections which may have escaped the attention of the committee will be placed under the care of Mr. Wharton, the chairman of the exhibition.

Miss Caldwell will act as secretary and asks that the names of the boys desiring to take part and the nature of their exhibits be brought to the library at the earliest possible day.

The committee at its next meeting will assign floor space needed by the different exhibits; boy marshals will be appointed to serve in turn the needs of each day, and arrangements completed to offer prizes in each line of endeavor. The twofold object of this exhibition is easy to understand. First. It will entertain a great many good friends of our manly boys to show them by this simple method the talent and ambition of so many of those who are one day to be the citizens of Greensboro. Second. The boys themselves will be encouraged and in this way materially aided by this manifestation of interest in their success by older citizens to whom they naturally look for guidance and example.

License of True Reformers Cancelled.

Raleigh, Oct. 29.—North Carolina Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young announces the cancellation of the license of the Independent Order of True Reformers, fraternal order with headquarters in Richmond, Va., to do business in this State because an investigation of the affairs of the order shows gross mismanagement, he says, and such conditions as make it undesirable for the company to continue to do business in this State. This cancellation of the license of the fraternal order carries with it the licenses of all the agents of the concern in this state. The commissioner warns all persons against representing the order and advises all citizens to refrain from any payments to it until the commissioner finds that it would be safe for them to do so.

DEFECTIVE TIES CAUSED WRECK

Blame For Bryson City Accident Placed.

Commissioner Rogers Says That Ties Were Rotten and Caused Track To Spread—Large Number of Rotten Ties In Locality—Recommends Improvements—Supt. Joyner Attends Educational Gatherings In Eastern Part of State.

Raleigh, Oct. 29.—After a lengthy investigation into the cause of the terrible Bryson City wreck October 7 on the Murphy branch of the Southern Railway in which 21 persons were injured, Corporation Commissioner Rogers reports to the commission that the wreck was due to defective track through rotten crossties that allowed the spreading of the track at a sharp curve that was approached at high speed. He reports great numbers of rotten ties in the immediate locality of the wreck. He reports that he found the general condition of the road bad with the people more and more apprehensive about patronizing it. He declares it imperative that the road be greatly improved to meet the requirements of traffic and for public safety.

It is learned here that the Corporation Commission has set on foot a movement to require the Southern Railway Co. to reinstate its service of three passenger trains each day between Asheville and Waynesville. One train was taken off by the Southern in September that the company contends was intended only for summer travel. The commission, however, is understood to be insisting that the train was intended for and must be retained for permanent service.

Mr. Norfleet Smith, prominent insurance man of this city, is recovering nicely from an accident last evening in which he was struck in the face by the shaft of a racing cart on the race track at the fair grounds as he was crossing the track to see the Greensboro A. & M. and Shaw University football game. His face was badly gashed.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner, just back from an extended trip into Eastern Carolina looking after educational matters, says that one of the most pleasant and thoroughly profitable meetings he has attended in a great while was the Northeastern district conference of county superintendents of public schools at Washington, N. C. The keen interest of the business men of Washington in educational matters was manifested by the attendance of large numbers of them on several of the sessions of the superintendents and through a sumptuous banquet tendered the school men by the Washington Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Joyner also attended a big educational rally yesterday at Chadburn, the affair taking on considerable of the aspect of a county fair in that there were extensive farm exhibits in connection with the rally. Appropriate exercises were arranged in which something like 2,500 school children participated. He says a number of rallies of this sort will be held in various parts of the state during the next few weeks and that the interest there is in making sure of agricultural branches of study in the schools is amazing. He went to Ore Hill for a Chatham county rally today.

FOUR PER CENT. PAID ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS.—FOUR PER CENT.

THE DIFFERENCE

between a dollar saved and a dollar spent is just two dollars. Did it ever occur to you that way? It's worth thinking about.

Another difference is the feeling you have afterward. The dollar saved gives you a feeling of real pleasure—it may call for a little sacrifice for the time being, but afterward you feel better for having denied yourself and the dollar is still yours. That is the nice thing about having money in the bank—you have saved it—it is still yours—you can have it when you wish.

We make it a part of our business to urge you to have a bank account at this bank, for it not only helps our business but yours more so.

HOBBLE IN SUPREME COURT

Woman Lawyer Causes Consternation Among Doorkeepers.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Has the hobble skirt invaded the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States?

This question today is agitating the attaches of the court, who it must be confessed, are so steeped in the ancient customs of the institution where quill pens are still in vogue and novelty in any form is shunned, that they are not competent to judge of a skirt when it is hobbled.

The person who has precipitated all the discussion is Aldema H. Burd, of New York, who was admitted to practice during the early part of the year. Miss Burd is interested in two cases now before the court.

When she appeared and proceded to take her seat within the inclosure reserved for members of the bar the doorkeepers were on the point of blocking her way, for in the judiciary sanctuary the infraction of the slightest rule seems to amount to no less than sacrilege. But Miss Burd is so unmistakably capable looking that the doorkeeper paused. There was a hasty investigation. But the dignified and crusty court officers were unable to tell whether it was a real hobble. Then one asked:

"What if it is, there isn't any rule against it."

"But," answered an aged attendant, with great finality, "there certainly is no precedent for it."

Nevertheless it seems likely that Miss Burd will take her place in history as proving that her sex can attain the greatest distinction in store for attorneys without giving up feminine devotion to the dictates of fashion.

Look for the Bell on the Sole

Can You Bend Your Shoe Like This?

You can't bend your old, stiff-soled shoe like this, let alone a new one. Isn't this reason enough to believe that your feet will be more comfortable if you wear with a flexible sole than in the usual, unyielding kind? This shoe is as pliable as a rubber-soled outing shoe, yet the best of leather is used and it's the toughest kind of leather, too. For all that it bends and gives with the foot, it wears—wears equally well with the stiff leather sole you are accustomed to. The tops and vamps are soft—yet strong and stylishly cut. They hold their shape.

THE JUDGE AND "T. R."

Parker Had Chance of His Life to Hear The Colonel.

New York Sun.

As he stepped off a regular train without a solitary private car, Judge Alton B. Parker was greeted by a small crowd, composed mostly of correspondents. They told him that he had the chance of his life to hear Mr. Roosevelt. The Judge thought he'd take a chance. He walked down the platform toward where the Richland audience was gathered. Suddenly Mr. Parker guessed he wouldn't go right up to the rear platform. He thought he could hear all right from where he stood. He remarked that all was well.

"You, my friend, who fought in the Grand Army," the Colonel was saying as the Judge surveyed him from afar, "in those days you appealed to all good citizens to stand together, and so now I have the right to appeal to all good citizens to stand together in this contest. We have as our candidate" (but the noise interrupted him).

"I can't talk against two tooting engines," he shouted.

"Against one? asked a man in the crowd.

"One I can get on fairly well with," was the retort.

"We ask your suport of Stimson," continued the Colonel, 'because he is oposed to Tammany Hall and by the big trusts. Every crooked business man"——

"I say, Colonel," piped a suspicious looking individual, "Judge Parker can't hear you."

The Colonel glared.

"Every crooked business man," he went on, "and every crooked politician I expect to oppose our candidate. I am glad to see you, comrade."

Comrade—I hear with pleasure and believe in every word you say.

The Colonel—I am glad you do.

While this repartee was going on Judge Parker held his place. He could not be persuaded to greet the Colonel and he went away without even speaking. He remarked as he left that everything was fine where he had been, meaning of course that the Democrats were blossoming out in good shape. Mr. Roosevelt knew that the Judge was there all the time.

MADE LOVE BY WIRELESS

Wedding to Take Place When Student Receives His Degree.

New York, Oct. 28.—Henry Schlobohm, a young lawyer of Yonkers, has made public a letter he received from Cornell University saying that Leslie T. Sutherland, an instructor in chemistry in that institution, has announced his engagement to Miss Viola Knapp, of Stamford, Conn., following a romantic courtship.

Sutherland and Schlobohm were chums at Cornell and were graduated the same year. Schlobohm began a legal career, but Sutherland continued his studies and expects to receive the degree of doctor of philosophy next June.

Sutherland, in 1907 and 1908, was a member of the Cornell football team. Miss Knapp first met Sutherland at a football game bteween Princeton and Cornell. Sutherland was a participant in the contest, and Miss Knapp was a spectator. A mutual friend introduced them.

Upon Miss Knapp's return to Stamford Sutherland determined to devise a means to offset the disadvantage caused by their being unable to meet save at infrequent intervals.

The letter to Schlobohm states that Sutherland and Miss Knapp were experimenters in wireless telegraphy. At Sutherland's suggestion they constructed stations and exchanged messages by wireless.

The wedding will take place immediately after Sutherland receives his degree. Sutherland is a nephew of Lesli Sutherland, Republican leader of Yonkers, where his folk live.

Forced To Leave Home.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calamine, Ark., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. Its surely the King of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. Its positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Asthma, Croup—all Throat and Lung troubles, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Capt. Bogardus Again Hits the Bull's Eye.

This world famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says:—"I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe backaches and pains in my kidneys with suppression and a cloudy voiding. On arising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self." Sold by Howard Gardner.

When You Buy Sox—Think of Your Wife

Next time you buy sox remember this fact—your wife will appreciate "Holeproof." If you take common hose she will have to darn them every week. If you insist on "Holeproof" she will have no darning to do for six months.

It costs no more to get the genuine "Holeproof." Don't let anyone sell you an imitation—think how your wife will have to sit up nights for six months to keep them mended.

Insist on "Holeproof" and see how surprised and delighted your wife will be for the next half year.

FAMOUS Holeproof Hosiery FOR MEN WOMEN AND CHILDREN

The makers have spent 31 years to reach this perfection in hosiery. So remember when others offer to imitate the guarantee they can't imitate the quality.

They pay 63 cents a pound for the best Egyptian and Sea Island cotton. Others often use common cotton at 12 cents a pound.

The yarn is 3-ply in the body and 6-ply in the heels, toes and knees. Others use 2-ply throughout. But you pay the same price for both.

"Holeproof" is shaped to fit the ankle as neatly as a glove fits the hand. The fabric is soft and comfortable—it is simply perfection in hosiery.

Ask our clerks to show you the hosiery. It comes in eleven colors for men, six for women and two for children. Prices from $1.50 to $3 a box of six pairs. Come in and see it today.
